Principal's Message

The school year 1994-95 has been a successful and memorable one.

As your principal and staff member I am proud of the academic accomplishments of our students. Many of our graduates have won awards and scholarships.

The student leaders and staff advisors have offered an excellent extra-curricular program.

Our teams have been successful and have represented North Lambton with good sportsmanship and athletic expertise.

On behalf of the students I would like to thank Lorraine Vandenberg and the whole yearbook staff for the excellent work on this year's Aurea Vincula.

Mr. R. Purves

Your School Leaders

Class of '95 President

Class of '95 has had an exciting and very eventful year! On top of all the mid-terms and independent studies people have still found time to get involved in school activities and help to increase North Lambton's school spirit. Our year started off with the Haunted House and decorating for Commencement. After that came the Semi-Formal and a donation to Forest's Contact House. The Variety Show was a great success due to the participation of both staff and students. Andy and Stu; the motivational speakers, were brought in by four groups in the school of which Class of '95 was a part. The Spring Fashion Show was put on through the collaborative efforts of the Fashion Arts class and our group. Last but not least our final event of the year . . . Prom. Special thanks to all the chairpersons and committee members who did an outstanding job planning and organizing! And of course. Thank-you to our excellent staff advisors, Mrs. S. Murray and Mr. Warren for your commitment and dedication to this group.

Best Wishes to All!!
Doreen Demers

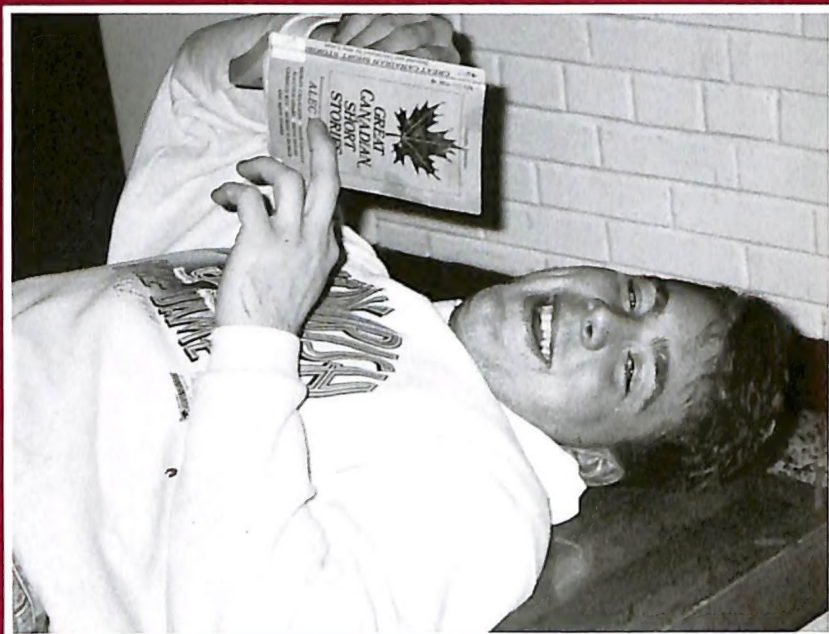

Student Activities Council's President

Another successful year has come and gone and I sincerely hope that the student council was able to offer every student enjoyable events. Whether you took part in our dances; Frosh Week; Winter Week, Spring Olympics, Andy and Stu, or the charity pancake breakfast, I think that the SAC was able to create something for everyone! I would like to commend all of the clubs in the school for the great work they have done; and the student council hopes that we can continue to work along with you. By combining our efforts, we can provide N.L.S.S. with bigger and better events and also develop more unified extra-curricular groups. I would like to thank the teaching staff, Mr. Purves and Mr. Robinson for their support, as well as YOU, the students! Keep getting involved, as it makes your high school years much more memorable and FUN!! Your involvement is what makes our events a success. I would also like to personally thank the general council, executive, and Mr. Shafer for all your long hours of help. On a final note, I hope that the spirit and pride in our school can continue to grow in the coming years! Keep it up N.L.S.S.

Michelle Chapman

Caught In The Act

“ QUOTABLE QUOTE ”

“Yes there are two paths you can go by. But in the long run there's still time to change the road you're on”

Stairway to Heaven
Led Zeppelin

Top: Coby Bebingh, Fred Ngodi and Tom Speck make the perfect threesome . . . or uh . . . group. Ya, that's it. Bottom: Jim Waite . . . what's this we hear about dropping your drawers on a music trip?!? That's right, wipe that smile off your face.

Top: Jen Hillis enjoys the most popular food in the cafeteria . . . junk food! Bottom: Heather Stokkermans, shouldn't you be in class?

Centre of Attention

From Top Left: Elisha Hurlock, Jason Murray, Bert Sparling and Janet Donkers, Shawn Lester, Rick Newton, Nicole Clysdale.

MORE Than You'd Expect

Ode to North Lambton for the joy that it brings
As long as you get to class before the second bell rings
Ode to Mr. Lynch who keeps us in line
With orange detention slips time after time

Ode to North Lambton because our hats we can wear
An asset to those who try to hide their bad hair
Ode to Mr. Kalia because he doesn't eat meat
And now all the smokers have been banished to the street

Ode to North Lambton where Toronto gives us heat
But air conditioning in winter time isn't a treat
Ode to Mr. Hunt because he gets to retire
What a tough act to follow for the next guy they hire

Ode to North Lambton where the parking permits suck
And also to Crunch 'cause he's also in love with his truck
Ode to Mr. Rog 'cause he's a rock and roll star

N.L.S.S. isn't too bad so far.

Class of 1998

Grade 9 Orientation

Grade nine Frosh Week sure was eventful this year, as it is every year! If any of you don't know what Frosh week is, it's when the "minor niners" enjoy a whole week of wacky fun filled games, contests and more. The famous hotdog eating contest took place where Sam Page ate his way to first by eating the most wieners. Congratulations! Next was an interesting day for the grade nines when they chose a slave. The slaves, which consisted of senior students ranging from grade eleven to OAC, had to do what their grade nine "masters" had told them. The slaves entered only by choice. You will notice that most of these slaves are carrying books, barking, having their faces painted and wearing and doing goofy stuff. To bring the Frosh week to an end, Frosh King's and Queen's were nominated. The nominee's included Adam Schlegal, Adam Johnston, Dan Forgie, Morgan Hudson, Karla Kerrigan, Kyla Dunham, Martina Peters and Alexis George.

The Fashion Arts Class and the class of '95 spent long hours preparing this year's fashion show "Endless Beginnings" to entertain the audience who filled the cafeteria. The fashion show was the Fashion Arts class' major assignment as they dedicated a month of their class time to it. The models were the girls from the Fashion Arts class and the members of the Class of '95. Mrs. Beatal, Mr. Lynch and his two daughters also took a turn on the runway. Mrs. Murray, the Fashion Arts teacher, was the commentator. She was surprised with a bouquet of flowers from her class who wished to show their appreciation of her hard work.

Flowers With Flair and Flowers Plus enhanced the set with spring garden flower arrangements and Julie Lester, who organized the music, the Dressing Room Crew, The Video Production Crew and The Stage Crew helped to make the show the great success that it was.

The show began with a "Springtime Splash" bathing suit set where the girls showed off their legs and the guys strutted down the runway bearing their chests. Special mention goes to Kevin Edlington for his performance during this set. (We bet you've invested a lot of weekends into that belly). Summer Carter's and Lisa MacPherson's voices were music to the audience's ears during intermission. The show ended with "A Night of Elegance" set in which the models wore beautiful prom dresses and tuxedos. The show was an amazing success thanks to the many long hours of preparation that were put into it. Proceeds were generously donated to The Cancer Society.

Participating stores: Robinson's Men's Shop, Le Chateau, Northern Traditions, Weekend Edition, Suzy Sheir, Forest Pro Sports, Surf'n Shop, Luttonian Belle, SAAN, Stitches, Levis 1850, Cotton Ginny, Ferguson Plain, Northern Reflections, Bud Gowen, Kingdon's Tots To Teens, Sideline, Collegiate Sports and Diana's.

North Lambton's World Records

Winter Week 1995

North Lambton's World Records, that was this years winter week theme. Various events sponsored by North Lambton's organizations included the opening assembly organized by SAC. Tuesday at lunch, AA held a young and old volleyball game. This event involved the oldest and youngest members of NLSS. Wednesday followed with OSAID's highly entertaining obstacle course. Students had to wheel their way around trees, poles, and stop signs on a bicycle. Thursday we had sumo wrestling. Students teachers and even Mr. Purves took part in this hilarious event sponsored by AA. On Friday students were squeezed into the gym to watch the Variety Show organized by the Class of 95. The green gryphons won the award for best skit. Tara Fralieg, Liam Karry, Lisa MacPherson and J.J. O'Donnell took part in this performance. Last but not least, we had a dance Friday night. Two hundred people attended and said they had a blast. Spirit awards were given at the dance to the person from each house who showed the most school spirit. Mike Rumford received the award for the red lions. Anne-Marie Zavitz won for the blue dragons, Michael Baarda for the golden bears, and Melissa Shepard for the green gryphons. The red lions were the overall winners.

HALLOWEEN '94

Halloween at N.L.S.S. was a real "scream" this year, with lots of great activities put on by SAC and Class of '94. Those who were brave enough experienced the real meaning of fear in a horrifying haunted house, and a noon dance was held with prizes for the most unique costumes, as well as a fashion show filled with . . . cross-dressing models!

Clockwise from Top Left: 1) No guy can resist Adrienne Roode when she bats those lashes!, 2) Bev Jamieson and Shannon Wellington all dressed up, 3) Who are these lovely ladies?, 4) The gang who put on the haunted house, 5) What's Halloween without the Grim Reaper (Jim Wardle)?, 6) Julie Smith, Melanie Recker and Kelly Smith dare to enter the haunted house, 7) Kim Palmer brewing up a spell.

Jewel of the Nile

Prom '95

The night came when many students came to the school all dressed up and decked out. Ready to have a great time at this years prom.

The cafeteria was decorated with green plants, an oasis in the corner complete with floating candles, a huge chariot in another corner, a giant sundial at the back, all relating back to the theme of Jewel of the Nile and showing all the hard work the many members of the prom committee put into this year's prom.

Then the moment finally arrived as the Prom King and Queen were announced and crowned. Michelle Chapman and Jim Waite were the well deserved winners as Jim carried his Queen out onto the dance floor.

The evening was complete with one final dance to end this year's prom.

It is the night, that no one can wait for. The grade nines see the night to be in the distant future but the graduates wonder where the time has gone.

Everyone filled the gym on the night of October 28, 1994 to cheer on the "Class of 94".

Tanya Stanton and her decorating committee had the gym looking fabulous, filled with balloons and streamers to help celebrate the event.

Mr. Giroux gave an outstanding speech which had the whole audience in laughter as he addressed the class.

Kelly Ainge had the honour of addressing the class with her valedictorian speech, and accepted many awards.

Behind the Scenes

A Message from AA President

It's hard to believe that another exciting and eventful year here at N.L.S.S. is over and done with. However, many of us have memories of the 1994-1995 school year that we will cherish forever.

The Athletic Association put on many successful events and intramurals that had never been tried in the North Lambton Gymnasium before. Such events as Blind Bowling, Sumo Wrestling, Student/Teacher Games and our annual Grade Nine Orientation in September showed what tremendous amount of school spirit the North Lambton Eagles have. The student population really got involved this year and we, the organizations who run these events would like to thank you for that. Without the students, we would not be able to plan such events.

North Lambton also had a successful year with our inter-school teams. Our Junior Boys Volleyball Team coached by Mr. Illman, and our Junior Girls were both LSSAA finalists, with the Jr. Boys coming out on top, for yet another year as being #1 in Lambton County. The Midget Girls and Senior Boys Volleyball Teams also managed a semi-finals placement at LSSAA. Both the Junior and Senior Badminton Teams, combined together, "three-peated" their LSSAA Tournament Champions Title. Both our Soccer Team and Track Team accomplished personal bests, like always. Training and practicing to be their best.

A special congratulations goes to Zack McLeod who made us all proud with a 1st place finish in Wrestling LSSAA, a 2nd place finish in WOSSA and also a comendable finish at OFFS-SAA. North Lambton possesses some tremendous athletic ability which always seems to shine forth in everything we do. Congratulations to all teams on a remarkable year.

Thanks to all A.A. members for all their hard work this year. Mrs. Murray and Mr. Illman also worked hard as our staff advisors. This has been a great year for me as President, and I have you, the students to thank for that.

Quebec City, Gentil Quebec City, Quebec City, Thirteen Hours Away!

On Friday, 28th, 1995, North Lambton Secondary School's Music Department loaded the buses and were off. Hours later, we entered another world. The difference in our environment consisted of a lack of parents, an escape from school, and sleep deprivation.

The purpose of our trip was to participate in the Classic Music Festival, an international event. We were able to put forth a performance we were proud of. We had the opportunity to work with the adjudicators, a rare and worthwhile experience. We were given high praise, with the Vocal Connection and Concert Band receiving a "Superior Rating" (the highest level of achievement in the festival) and the Wom's Chorus an "Excellent". The evening after our performance was a time for celebration in all different styles.

Summer wowed us with her Karaoke skills, while some of the guys displayed their hacky sac talents, while the majority simply got down with their bad selves. Whether we were soaking in the history of Quebec, soaking hapless individuals with ice water or soaking one another in the hotel pool, we enjoyed ourselves.

The Basilica of St. Anne awed us. We admired the handiwork of fine craftsmen, both in metals and wood, when we visited workshops and displays outside the city.

History took on new dimensions throughout our bus tours and during a frightening and entertaining multimedia presentation. Oh, the things we learned on this trip! Who could have guessed that Mr. Garrett and even the Tost brothers, were such movers and shakers on the dance floor? We learned spoon-playing, line-dancing, food-fighting, raptor-screaming, poler-playing . . . These trips are so very educational. We all have poignant memories, too numerous (and embarrassing) to mention, and for this we owe our gratitude to many parties. Mr. Williams, Mrs. Vince, and Mrs. Williams have been our mentors and our driving force. They are why we make music, and why we make it well. Mrs. Beastall, Mr. Furtney, Mr. Garrett, and Mr. Lynch were our much-appreciated chaperones. Last but not least, a big round of applause goes to Larry and Joel, the best of bus drivers. Extra thanks is extended to friends, family, and community members who purchased our wares and helped us fund-raise for the event.

P.S. - Ethay ashroomway oaynay usbay ootway inkstay. Onay oremay igpay atinlay, easeplay!

Something for Everyone

North Lambton's Co-op Program

Academics is an important part of the learning process but so is experience, as students from North Lambton found out from their co-operative education placement. There is a wide range of placements to be had. Everything from the Sarnia Coast Guard to the Forest Day Care Centre. There seems to be something for everyone.

The co-op placement provides good work experience, insight to a future career and possibly a summer job.

If you are interested contact a guidance counselor, the co-op director (Mr. Muir) or approach one of the many co-op students that attend North Lambton that have already participated in this program.

There was a great turnout for this years "Christmas in Paris" semiformal. Everyone was dressed tres chic for the occassion and the cafeteria could hardly be recognized after it was decorated very festively and a French cafe was added. Drinks and snacks were provided. Tony Hunter and Tina Chapman were voted snow King and Queen. Runners up included Jason Harris, Shawn Vance, Gordon Marsh, Jeremy Bressette, Lindsay Recker, Julie Willsie, Selena Vandenberg and Alisha Hurlock.

Dinner Theatre

“Weird Is the Night”

On Thursday November 24, 1994 Drama students got together to share their talent with a cafeteria full of family and friends. The theme of the evening was titled "Weird is the Night" and it definitely lived up to its title. From a dead body in the closet to a mysterious and wacky peanut murderer. There were four skits involved in the evenings entertainment, these skits were titled "The Body in the Closet" which had Shawn Lester as the corpse, "Then there was One" in which one by one, each member of the cast were mysteriously being killed, "Nice Little Kitty" which cast Sarah Britton as a whiny wife with a mysterious cat and Ned Wellington as the cat hating husband who gets so fed up he kills his wife. And finally the memorable skit performed by the teachers called "The Peanut Murders" which was abruptly ended by Mrs. Val Morrison our very own drama teacher for being a lame-never-ending skit. All actors and actresses are commended for a job very well done. A special mention goes to J.J. O'Donnell and Chris Sageman as the evenings MC's. The 1994 Dinner Theatre was a success.

From Top Left: Jana Cable and Melanie Roder did a fine job in "Then there was One". Jason Sebo, Tom Speck, Kendra Kroeps, Lisa McPherson, Shawn Lester and Lindsay Recker pose for the camera, and Jana Cable, Brad Cassarin, Jason Sebo, Liam Karry, Rob Galliford and Janet Maybury try to figure out "Whodunnit?" in "Then there was One".

A Touch of the Tropics

Costa Rica

On the day of March 11th ten North Lambton students, Mr. Brown and his family, Mr. Moergeli, Melody Carins from Sarnia, Stephanie Vandenberg from Lyndsay and Nancy Holmes from Sarnia, flew out of Toronto to begin our adventure to Costa Rica. On the afternoon of March 12 we arrived in the capital of Costa Rica, San Jose. After spending the night at the Quality Inn we bused to Fortuna for two days. Here we spent our time horseback riding, hiking, relaxing in the volcanic hot springs and enjoying the view from Lake Arenal.

On the fourth day we drove to the highlands of Costa Rica, arriving at the Monteverde Cloud Forest Lodge in the morning. After spending two days amongst the surroundings of a cloud forest we bused to the Fiesta Resort where we spent our afternoon swimming in the various pools and enjoying all that the resort had to offer.

On the seventh day of our trip we hiked through Manuel Antonio natural park and swam in the salt of the ocean.

We then returned to San Jose for our final night in Costa Rica. The next morning we regretfully left Costa Rica. And so ended an incredible trip.

England Trip

A Jolly Good Time in London!

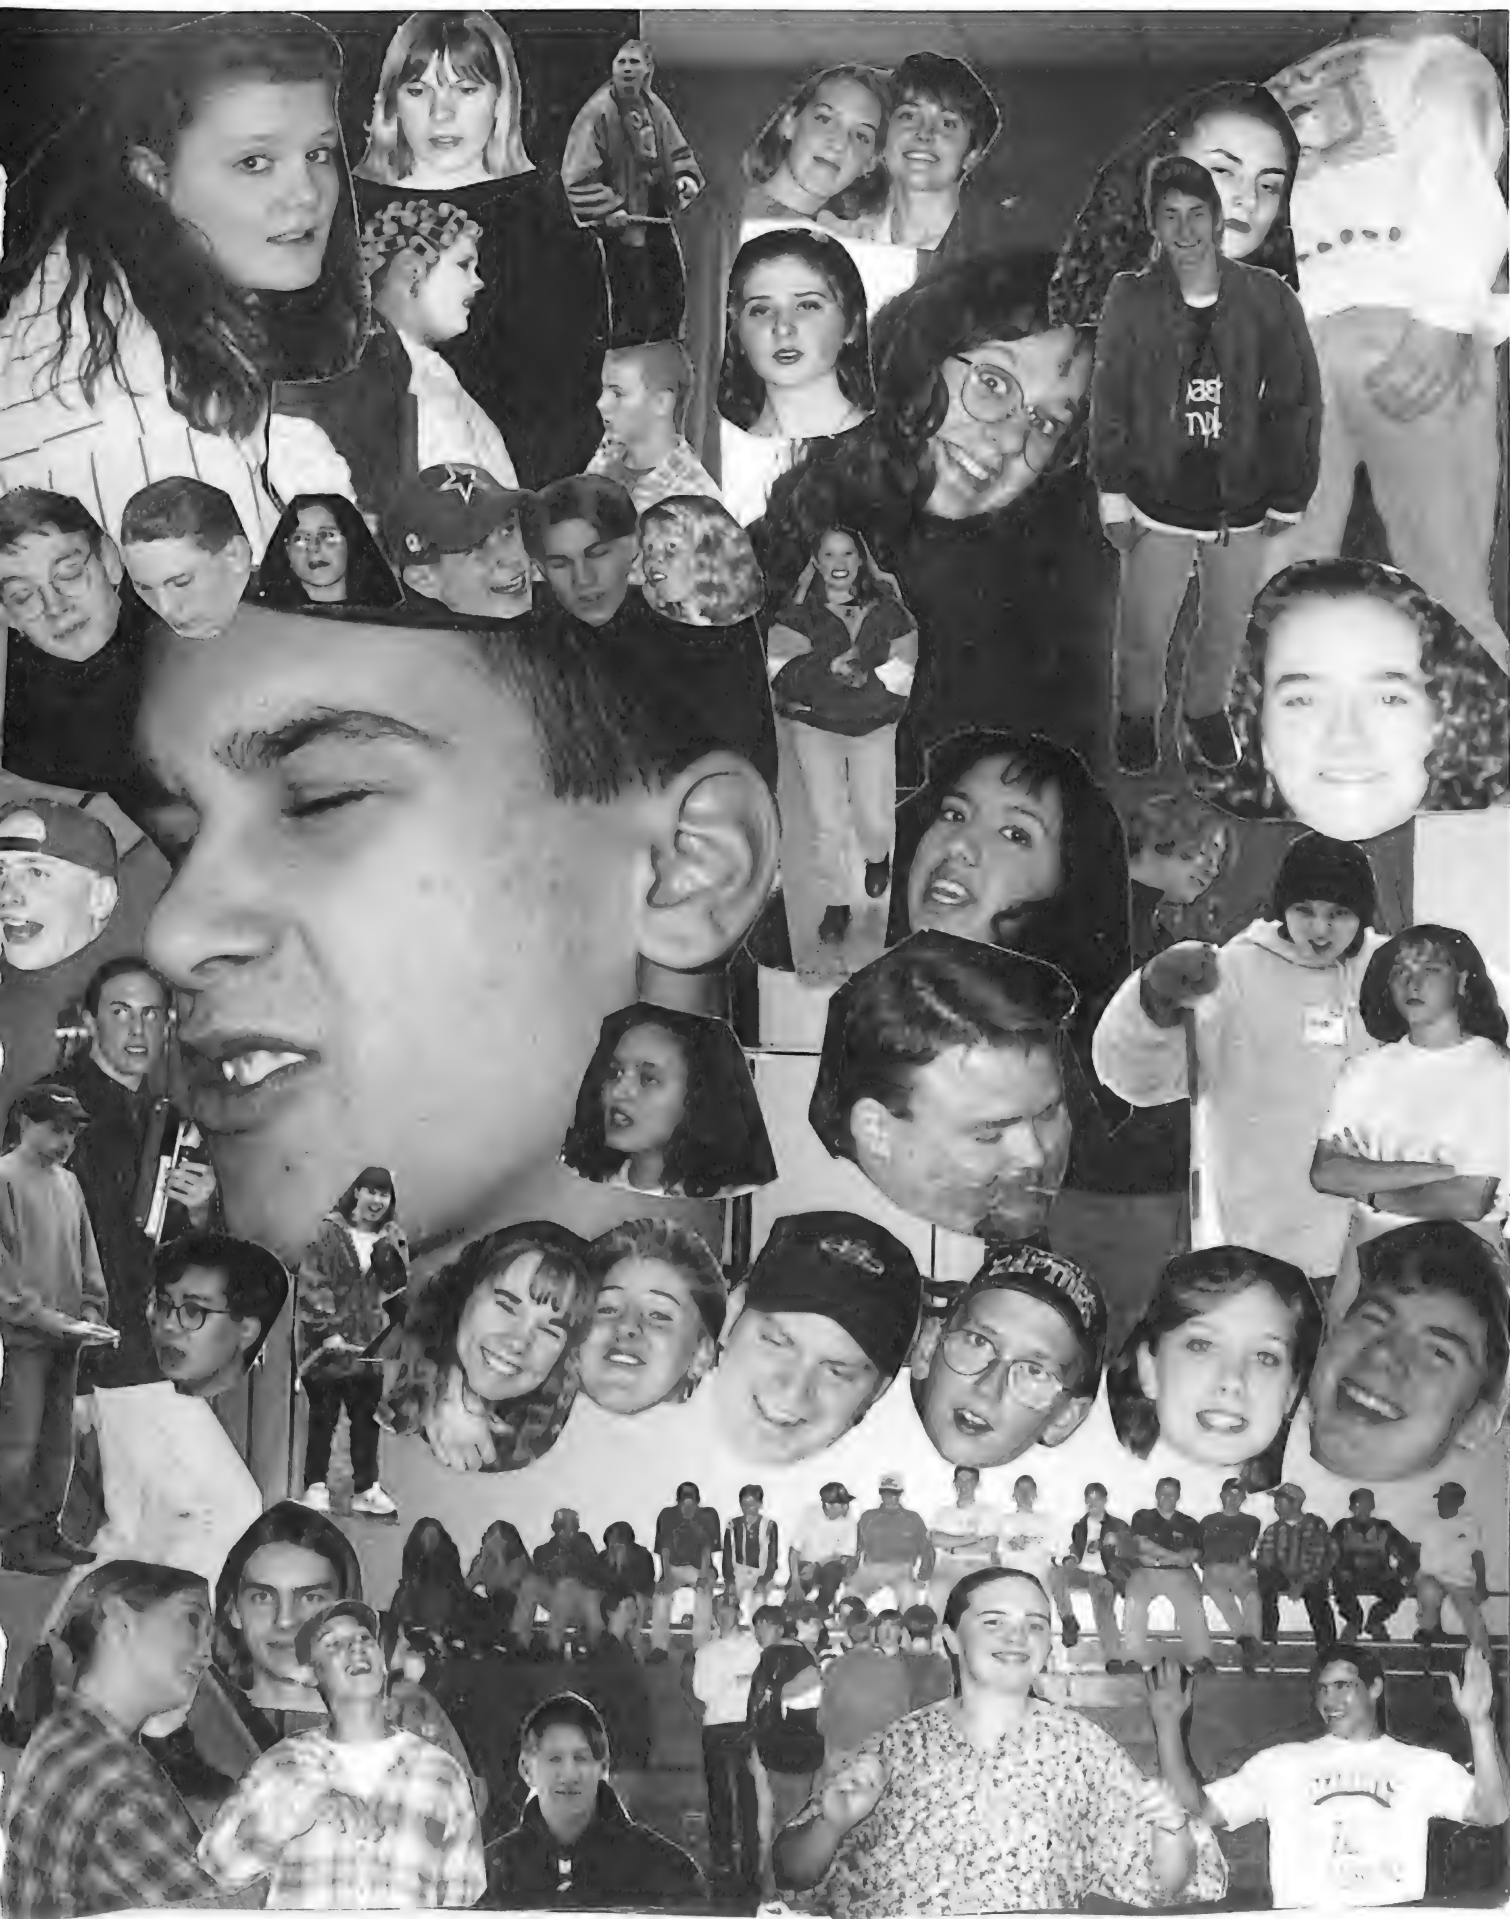

On March 11, 1995, a group of students from N.L.S.S. hopped on a plane to spend spring break in Jolly Old England. There we spent seven days seeing the sights of the beautiful city of London, and also Windsor and Bath. These included the changing of the guards and Buckingham Palace, Stonehenge, Westminster Abbey, and Windsor Castle, to name a few. We took part in a fabulous five-course medieval feast, and took in two excellent plays. Despite a lack of hot water and some rather small hotel rooms, we still managed to take London "by storm" in seven fantastic days and nights, and I think I speak for everyone when I say we had the time of our lives.

Special thanks goes to our chaperones Mr. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, and Christine, and also to our tour director Rob Sweetingham for making this a trip we will never forget.

After Hours

N.L.S.S. Students Keep Busy After School

The students of North Lambton work really hard during the school day but wait until you see them after school hours. Many of the students decided to earn a little extra spending cash by getting an after school job. These jobs include: waitressing, grocery packer, cashier and cook. Some of the popular spots of employment are Knechtals, KFC, the Forest Golf and Country Club and Corky's. Keep up the good work.

Bouchard illness sets Canadians worrying

The sudden, savage bacterial assault that cost Bloc Quebecois leader Lucien Bouchard a leg and nearly his life has generated such a blizzard of publicity about type A streptococcus, and the rare complication it can cause, that many worried Canadians are asking their doctors if they've got it — the flesh-eating necrotic myositis.

Lucien Bouchard is a famed victim of a rare malady.

You Said it!!!

This years student poll was designed differently than ever before. There was more opportunity for creativity in the responses, but when reading through the responses "creative" wasn't really the first word that came to mind. While the majority of your responses had to be censored, we managed to salvage a few good ones from what we had left. We've listed some of the top responses, along with a couple of our favorites. Thanks for the great co-operation!

Top this excuse: "The dog ate my homework."

1. I was attacked by psycho killer cows from Mars, who stole my homework, nuked my house and killed my dog. 12/M
2. I was taken hostage by a crazed terrorist with a slushy - and he know how to use it! 11/M
3. We ditched the car in a snowbank and had to use it for tire traction. OAC/M

Reword Forrest Gump's famous line: Life is like a box of chocolates, you never know what your gonna get.

Life is like a box of condoms, you never know what you're gonna catch. 11/F

Life is like a box of Kraft Dinner, you gotta know where to get your cheese. 12/M

If _____'s face was on the cover of the Eagle Spirit, I'd buy it.

- | | |
|---------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. Brad Pitt 11/F | 4. Cindy Crawford 9/M |
| 2. Johnny Depp 12/F | 5. Pamela Anderson 10/M |
| 3. My OAC/M | |

The burgers in the cafeteria are REALLY made of . . .

1. road kill 11/M
2. The grade nines who didn't make it through initiation. 10/F

The most valuable piece of knowledge that you've gained during your time spent at NLSS is . . .

1. Don't become a "Dirt Kid" 10/F
2. Don't mess with the seniors. 9/M
3. None?!? OAC/F

The Battle of The Sexes

What's your biggest complaint about the opposite sex?

- * They have to go to the washroom in groups. 10/M
- * PMS . . . 'nuff said! OAC/M
- * If you want them to be ready by 8:00 you have to tell them you'll pick them up at 7:30. 11/M
- * They all have the M.E. Syndrome (Massive Ego's) 11/F
- * They don't have to shave their legs. 11/F
- * They only have one thing on their mind - OAC/F

Give us your best pick-up line.

- * Don Logan's famous line: "Let's hit the sheets." 9/M
- * "Do you want to go for a walk & talk?" (ya right!?) 11/F
- * "When they made the alphabet they should have put U and I together." 11/M
- * Hey baby! What's your sign? 10/F
- * Gimme some of that good stuff. 11/F
- * Hey baby, can I get some fries to go with that shake? 12/M

The strangest attire seen at NLSS is . . .

1. Aaron Svatos Kilt 11/M
2. "Dirt Kid" Fashions 12/F
3. Tim Curry's 10/M

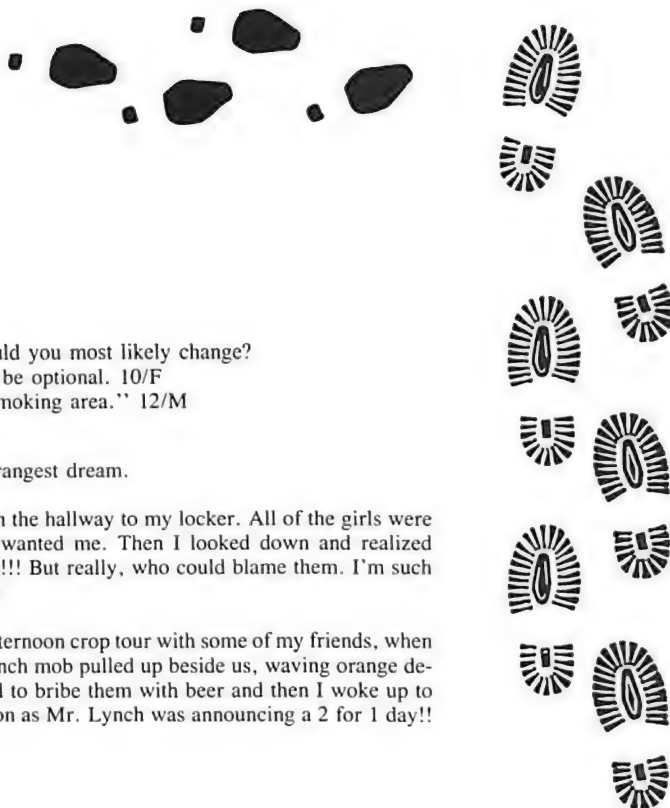

What school rule would you most likely change?

1. Attendance should be optional. 10/F
2. "Bring back my smoking area." 12/M
3. Late slips. 9/F

Tell us about your strangest dream.

1. I was walking down the hallway to my locker. All of the girls were watching me - They wanted me. Then I looked down and realized . . . I was buck naked!!! But really, who could blame them. I'm such a stud and . . . 12/M
2. I was on a Friday afternoon crop tour with some of my friends, when all of a sudden the Lynch mob pulled up beside us, waving orange detention slips. We tried to bribe them with beer and then I woke up to find myself in detention as Mr. Lynch was announcing a 2 for 1 day!! 12/M

What teacher(s) is most likely to appear on Oprah, and why? (Don't be afraid to scandalize!)

1. Mr. Harrington (Rockin' Rog) = Life in Rog town. 11/F
2. Mr. Hunt & Mr. Kalia = The secret affair. OAC/F
3. Mr. Moloy = In search of a woman. 11/M
4. Crunch = Men and their trucks. 12/M

Tell us the worst, vilest, stupidest or most embarrassing thing that you've ever done. (That you wouldn't mind your parents or a person of authority to find out about.)

1. Trust me, they already know. (This is Forest, you know) 12/F
2. Pulling "mooners" out the bus window. 11/M
3. We taped a grade nine to a telephone pole. OAC/M

Thank-you to . . .

Mrs. Fenner for her keys and support

Mr. Lynch and Mr. Richardson for their keys to the yearbook room.

Ms. Eldridge for her layout skills and willingness to help.

Mr. Muir for working on Yeartech for next year.

Mrs. Muir for all her help.

My great friends Melissa King, Cristina Smit, Tanya Stanton, and Angela Hayter for helping me whenever I felt like I was losing my mind.

Mrs. Lowe and her class for the ads.

The office staff for their help with last minute announcements, a check on who's who in the pictures and the numerous lists of students.

Coby Bebing, Carla Bressette, Summer Bressette, and Angela Baarda for their numerous contributions to the yearbook.

A special thank-you to our staff and co-ordinator for everything else, Mr. Jensen.

And of course my wonderful yearbook staff!!

I would also like to mention those students who contributed to the yearbook by designing the layout for a few pages, Coby Bebingh, Cristina Smit, Melissa King, Carla Bressette and Summer Bressette.

The Eagle Spirit for the use of their pictures.

The Yearbook Staff

Well this is it, the final product of all our blood, sweat and tears, and believe me from this editor there was a lot of tears.

This yearbook is our biggest one yet and I predict all following yearbooks will continue to grow every year as the number of events that our student organizations put on increase as well.

I can honestly say that every one of this year's yearbook members worked hard to put this yearbook together. We decided to continue the idea of a theme in a yearbook, and after much deliberation we came across the idea of "Out of this World". With three major trips the students at NLSS participated across the globe, from Costa Rica, to England, and Quebec. We also classified the teachers by which planet governs their characteristics according to their birthday. Also brought into our theme are the many exchange students our school has this year.

In parting I would like to say that I learned much from my experience and am thrilled it is over.

Faculty

This year, in keeping with our "Out of this World" theme, we decided to sort our "spacy" teachers according to the planet which dominates their personality. Each planet influences one or more signs of the zodiac, and each planet is responsible for both positive and negative traits in an individual. Those teachers for who we had no record of birth appear to have been spawned by aliens, and were placed in that category. (Please remember this is all in fun and not to be taken seriously).

Spawned??

(Date of Birth Unknown)

Spawned: These are the few teachers that we do not have a record of birth. Therefore it can be concluded that these teachers were not born under a different planet, they were spawned on a different planet. But there is an exception, Mr. Kalia who was born on the 32 day of March on the Indian calendar.

Teachers: Top Row L-R: Mr. Shafer, Mrs. Nemchek, Mrs. Mayhead.

Hi North Lambton. For the people who did not have the wonderful opportunity to meet me, my name is Frederik Ngodi (Fred for the most of you) and I come from France. I studied in your school for almost a year and I really enjoyed it. I really have to tell you something; the people of NLSS are terrific. To the students; I thank you for making me feel good every day and to the staff and the custodians; I thank you to (Especially the Music department in which I spend most of my time with Vocal Connection and Senior Band). I would like to thank also the Rotary Club and my host families (the Schoely's, Foster's and Dodge's).

See you soon in France.

Wow, I'm going to miss you.

A Bientot

Fred

Ki-ora, G'day My name is Karen Mansfield, I am an exchange student from New Zealand. I arrived in Canada in January and I'm having an amazing stay. My first day of school here was a snow day - we don't get these at home, (although we do have snow in the mountains). I left summer in New Zealand to come to more snow than I have ever seen before. North Lambton is a great school. Thank you all for making me feel so welcome. I return home next January so I will get to have my first White Christmas and experience summer in Grand Bend, where I am hosted by the Grand Bend Rotary Club. I will be back for the first semester in September so please introduce yourself to me

My name is Ana Paula and I am an exchange student from Brazil. I really enjoyed the winter in Canada. It was the first time I saw snow. To be a student at this school has been the most important experience to me. I am still learning English. I would like to thank all my teachers and classmates for all their help. This will always be a special year for me.

Thank you

Obrigado

My name is Mika Ranta. I am an exchange student from Finland. I spend most of my time at NLSS in the school library which is a very nice place. Other than that I play soccer and if possible, go to the games club. I also enjoyed the Canadian school system which has shorter days and allows a lot more slacking than the Finnish counterpart.

These are the "awards" and predictions for this year's active graduating class members.

The Happening Thing!

Words, hairstyles, clothing styles and favorite pastimes come and go. Some we're glad to forget, a few we still talk about, but the majority of them we swear we took no part in. To those of you drowning in denial let's provide you with a little flashback. (Students requested to remain anonymous. After you read their confessions you'll know why.)

MEMOIRS OF THOSE "WHAT-POSSESSED-ME-TO- DO-IT!?" DAYS

"I remember the days that my bangs could actually defy gravity. All it took was about a half an hour of curl, tease and spray, curl, tease and spray . . ."

"I had this collection of like 50 jelly bracelets. You know, like the ones Ricky Schroeder used to wear on t.v."

"I was obsessed with The New Kids On The Block. I had the bookbag, the pencil case, the toothbrush, the t-shirts . . . Now I've moved on to The Lion King."

"Every pair of jeans I owned were . . . I can't even say it . . . acid washed."

"This is disgusting to admit as a guy but I used to wear those shiny spandex bike shorts."

"In public school everything was either gnarly or rad."

"I used to wear those see-through jelly shoes. But aren't those cool again?"

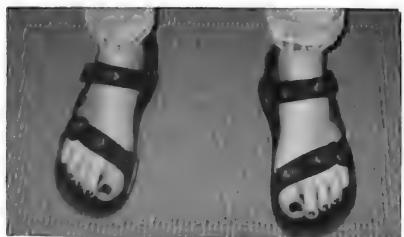

"I remember when you were a big loser if you didn't do that stupid tuck-and-roll thing with your pants. And how about the tuck-and-pin thing?"

"I think it's about time the word 'Cheesy' went out of style."

If you still deny taking part in any of the above you must have a lot to hide. Face it. You've been there, done that. Just don't let it happen again.

These days the 'happening things' are: work boots, hiking boots, granny boots, Doc's, Birkenstocks, Teva and Nike Sandles, platforms, clogs, big wooly sweaters, tattoos, Grub wear, No Fear and Co-ed Naked t-shirts, hospital pants, toques, really short hair, straight long hair, shagged hair, pink, pogs, hacky sacs, barrettes, short tight t-shirts, The Lion King and Thumb Master. So go ahead and conduct your own check-list to see if you were hip in 94/95.
